

Péter Moskovits

Obtained his university qualifications in economics and labor relations studies in 1983. Since 1981, he has led Szer-szak-coop zRt. (and its forerunner), and is currently its chairman. Between 1994 and 2006, he participated in the reorganization of the economic management system of the Budapest City Government. He participated in bond issues on the international bond market and the creation of a negative pledge requirement system. He has been a Board Member of Graphisoft Park SE since 2008.